Mr. Louis G. Feldman
Commander-in-Chief
Veterans of Foreign Wars

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Feldman:

Thank you very much for your telegram of 21 July giving me additional information concerning the V. F. W. dinner to be held at Detroit on 22 August.

As you suggest, I shall get in touch with Mr. Ketchum here in Washington as my travel plans become more definite. I think it likely that I shall travel alone and will make my own arrangements for air transportation and hotel accommodations, so you need not bother about these. However, I should appreciate receiving from you any thoughts you may have on an appropriate subject matter for my talk as well as an indication of how long you believe I should speak.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
